WASHINGTON

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 9.

Notice to City Subscribers .- A person named John Q. ms, who was some time since engaged in distributing.

American Telegraph in this city, is no longer so en ployed. Our subscribers are requested not to settle any accounts with him, but with Mr. R. W. Gogein, our present agent.

Congress To-Day. SENATE.-Mr. Houston appeared to-day.

A large number of petitions and memorials were presented.

Mr. STOCKTON presented a petition from citizens of Newark, New Jersey, praying the interposition of the Government to prevent the execution of the sentence passed by the Cuban authorities upon Mr. John S. Thrasher.

He offered a resolution calling upon the President to transmit all information in his possession touching the imprisonment of Mr. Thrasher, and it was adopted.

Mr. SEWARD introduced a bill for mint issue

in New York. Mr. HALE introduced a joint resolution, providing for interposition by the United States Government in behalf of Abd-el-Kader. Mr. BRIGHT introduced his proposition for the election of the Senate officers. Laid aside. A large number of bills were introduced.

Mr. SEWARD's resolution, extending a welcome to Kossuth, was taken up and debated by Messrs. SEWARD and SHIELDS, and in a peculiarly eloquent manner by Messrs. Hale and House of Representatives .- The Standing Committees were announced.

Ways and Means .- Houston of Alabama, Jones of Tennessee, Hibbard, Brooks, Jones of Pennsylvania, Appleton, Dunham, Phelps, and Stanly.

Commerce-Seymour of New York, Johnson of Tennessee, Stephens, Fuller, Duncan, Robbins, St. Martin, Aiken, Walsh.

Naval Affairs-Stanton of Tennessee, Bocock, Burrows, S. W. Harris, Cabell, Ross, Penniman, Wildrick, and Goodenow.

We did not receive the entire list in time for our afternoon edition. The following gentlemen are chairmen of the other prominent committees:

Mr. Disney, of Elections.

Mr. Hall, of Public Lands.

Mr. Olds, of Post Office.

Mr. Ficklin, of District of Columbia. Mr. McLanaban, of Judiciary.

Mr. McDonald, of Revolutionary Claims.

Mr. Jenkins, of Private Land Claims.

Mr. Beall, of Manufactures. Mr. Daniel, of Claims.

Mr. Burt, of Military Affairs.

Mr. Peaslee, of Militia.

Mr. Stanton of Tennessee, of Naval Affairs. Mr. Bayly of Virginia, of Foreign Affairs.

Mr. Holladay, of Territories.

Mr. J. L. Robinson, of Roads and Canals. Mr. Cartter, of Patents.

Mr. Stanton of Kentucky, of Public Buildings and Grounds.

A message was received from the Senate informing the House that that body had passed a resolution for the election of Chaplains, one by each House, to interchange weekly.

Mr. Jones, of Tennssee, was opposed to the election of such officers, and moved to lay the resolution on the table; but the motion did not prevail-yeas 22, nays 169.

Mr. HENN offered an amendment, which was disagreed to, that Chaplains shall receive no compensation out of the Treasury of the United States.

The resolution was then agreed to, and the House proceeded to the execution of the order. Various clergymen were then placed in nomination, and on the vote being taken,

Rev. Mr. Gurley received 7 votes: Cushman. 29; Finney, 6; L. F. Morgan, 30; Gallagher, 13; Westbrook, 5; Beman, 4; Junkin, 12; Dayly, of Indiana, 12; Dewey, 6; Wisner, 3.

There being no choice, the House proceeded to a second trial, with a similar result; and, on the third, the Rev. Mr. Gurley received 84; the Rev. Mr. Morgan, 82; the Rev. Mr. Finnev. 1: and the Rev. Mr. Junkin. 1. As 87 votes were required, there was no election. At twenty minutes to three o'clock, the House was proceeding with a fourth vote. Later .- Mr. L. F. MORGAN, the able and eloquent pastor of the Foundry (M. E.) Church, was finally elected Chaplain of the House.

The Reception of Kossuth. From the moment we first heard the name o

Kossuth spoken to the present, our admiration for him has known no abatement. The friend of his country and his race, and the friend of religious and civil liberty, he is worthy our highest honors and our warmest plaudits. While he was afar off, and while there were not wanting Americans to slander and denounce him, we spoke his praise, and predicted with confidence the discomfiture of his assailants.

He is now upon our soil, and in their univergoing beyond what is seemly and compatible with true dignity. Their rage is excessive, and its manifestations extravagant. We regret this. We cannot look with favor upon any act on the part of our countrymen that they may have siasm has not been regretted. We can do honor to our guest and to ourselves by greeting him cordially and respectfully; but let the metropolis of the nation, at least, waive all manifesta tions of adoration, all frenzied and unmeaning excesses, and receive him with an appreciative regard for him as the champion of rational liberty.

FROM NICARAGUA .- By the arrival of the steamship Ohio at New York on Sunday we are in receipt of important intelligence from Nicaragua. The Herald's correspondent at San that sanitary officers are in all parts of the Juan de Nicaragua states that on the 19th of kingdom urging its adoption, especially when November, General Munoz, his officers, and twenty-seven Americans were captured by Gen. Chamorro, and committed to prison. He further states that before the date of his letter the whole party were probably shot. If this intelligence is true, and we have no reason to doubt it at present, there is an end of the war in that quarter.

et "him who is without sin cast the first stone." ington."

THE FIRE LAST NIGHT .- At 11 o'clock, while the winds blew fiercely from the West, the carpenter shop of Mr. J. W. Phillips, on 7th street, between G and H, was discovered to be on fire, and before efficient means could be used to suppress it, the whole building was in flames, and was soon totally destroyed, together with an adjoining unfinished frame house. Mr. Phillips's shop was in the second story, and beneath him was the wheelwright establishment of Mr. James A. Wise, which was also destroyed, with its contents. This building belonged to Mr. Wise, and the new dwelling destroyed was being built by Mr. Phillips for Mr. Wise. The loss of Mr. Phillips is about $400 to $500. He was fully insured in the Hudson River Insurance company. Mr. Wise lost $700 to $800. He was insured in the Ætna in the sum of $500. The cabinet-making establishment of Mr. Connelly was providentially saved, but not heavily. without the loss of about $200, caused by the hasty removal of his goods.

The houses on the opposite side of the street were all in imminent peril, and required the utmost efforts of the firemen to preserve them. That of Mr. Lynch was at one time thought to be beyond the control of the firemen. The roof was burned off, and other injuries done to the amount of probably $200. We do not know that he was insured.

An incendiary, it appears, had found his way into the carpenter shop in the second story, to perpetrate his wretched purpose. The scarcity of water was a lamentable incident also connected with the affair.

The Treason Trial. Mr. Brent yesterday resumed his speech. He referred to the appearance of Scarlet on the ground, who he said had soon become alarmed at the awful responsibility he had assumed and left the ground, callous to the appeals of the dying man for water. He ridiculed the idea of horns having been blown for breakfast, as it was just at the dawn of day. When this signal was given Parker's house was filled with armed men. The ease with which the fury of the blacks was allayed by Hanaway proved his power over them. Kline, while in the hands of the Philistines at Christiana, boldly, face to face, proclaimed Hanaway one of the traitors, and he did not deny it. The testimony of Lewis, he contended, broke down the de fence. Lewis admits that he went to see justice done, and yet he permits the blacks to commit murder and rob the dead body of Gorsuch. He does not tell the blacks, whom he desired to befriend, that the officers had lawful authority there, but permits the negroes to rush blindly on their own dastruction. He can identify the murderers, but names none that he knew, although one man was killed and another supposed to be mortally wounded-this, too, while holding the office of postmaster and sworn to support the Constitution and laws. He repelled the charge that in southern States masters were permitted cruelly to punish their slaves. Reasonable punishment, he admitted. was allowed, but if a master killed his slave he was answerable the same as if the person had been white. He next examined the law, and showed that Chief Justice Marshall and other eminent jurists had held combined resistance to the laws of Congress to be treason.

J. M. Read, for the defence, followed him. His speech was a Free-soil one, and he asserted that he never had been in favor of slavery, and he trusted in God he never could be. He advanced the doctrine that Pennsylvania was bound to give greater protection to blacks than to whites, because the whites alone made the laws and had the courts of Justice. Mr. Read was to resume his speech to-day.

COLONEL BENTON IN MISSOURI.-Since the return of Colonel Benton to Missouri, the war between the Benton and anti-Benton portions of tificate of election, by the misspelling of his the Democratic party in that State is said to name on some of the ballots, which read Azor have broken out with renewed spirit and bitterness. The St. Louis Union, the organ of the not count for him. Judge C., it is also stated, Bentonites, has proclaimed that there can be no union between the two parties, and publishes with commendation the proceedings of a meeting at which Colonel Benton was nominated for Congress, and a preference expressed for Gen. Wm. O. Butler for President, and Gen. Dodge, of Wisconsin, for Vice President. The St. Louis Intelligencer thinks all this indicates with sufficient distinctness, first, that Colonel Benton will shortly announce himself a candidate for Congress in that district: second, that he will wage an implacable warfare upon the anties, as heretofore; third, that they, the aforesaid anties, must either succumb and sue for pardon in humble tones, or fight out to the last the warfare between Colonel Benton and themselves; fourth, that the pretensions of General Butler for the Presidency are to be urged by Colonel splendid clothing establishment there. The Benton and those with whom he acts; fifth, that main hall is now filled with a grand assortment during the next year they are to have a politi- of clothes for men and boys. But how can they cal excitement in Missouri unparalleled for its | sell them so cheap? intensity and bitterness.

CARDINAL HUGHES .- The correspondent of the London Daily News, writing from Rome on to invite every minister who has charge of a church the 10th ult., says that Archbishop Hughes has sal laudations we fear our countrymen are been made a Cardinal, and adds: "I understand that this step will be a matter of perfect turn the deliberations of Congress each day in indifference to the American Government." Certainly it will-perfect indifference, and to the people also. If gratifying to him and to his flocks, we do not object. Titles are not occasion to regret, and we have never known such affairs with us as with our English friends. an instance in which such undignified enthu- Even the Pope himself may make his abode here in perfect security. We are as indifferent to all such things as to so much moonshine.

VENTILATION OF ROOMS .- This subject does not anywhere receive the attention it merits. In England great benefits are recently derived from an opening made into the chimney, near the ceiling, by the removal of a brick, and placing there a piece of wire gauze, with a light curtain flap hanging against the inside to prevent the issue of smoke in gusty weather. So great have been the obvious advantages of this, many persons are crowded together in the same Virginia Election. RICHMOND, Dec. 8 .- Summers, the Whig candidate for Governor, has 789 majority in this city. The polls will be kept open three days, which will increase his majority. Taylor's majority in 1848 was 719. Henrico county gives Summers a small majority. Petersburg gives 120 majority for Johnson (Dem.) for Governor. It gave Taylor 59 majority. In Norfolk, Summers has 183 majority; Watts, for Lieutenant Governor, 178; Baxter, for Attorney General, 126; Tabb, for the Senate, 143; and Robertson, for the House of Delegates, 126—all Whigs. In Portsmouth, Johnson has 327 majority; Leake, for Lieutenant Governor, 349; and Bo-cock, for Attorney General, 327. In Berkeley county, Johnson has 200 majority.

HARPER'S FERRY, Dec. 8.—The majority of Johnson, the Democratic candidate for governor, in Winchester is 15.

ALEXANDRIA, Dec. 8 .- The following is the esult of the election in the town and county of Alexandria: Summers, Whig, for Governor, 285 majority. For Lieutenant Governor, Watts, Whig, has a majority of 251; and Baxter, Whig, for Attorney General, has a majority of 298. Thomas, Whig, for Senator, has a majority of 252. Massey, Whig, for delegate, 174.

WASHINGTON AND GEORGETOWN.-In the Board of Common Council, last night, Mr. Brent introduced a joint resolution: That for the purpose of consulting with the members of the Corporation of Georgetown, in relation to matters of mutual interest to both cities, and of co-operating in applications to Congress for appropriations which shall contribute to their mutual advantage, the president of each of the Boards of the City Councils shall appoint a standing committee to co-operate with similar committees to be appointed by the City Councils of Georgetown. Mr. Brent gave briefly his views upon the subject, and Mr. Miller opposed the proposition; when, under the operation of the previous question, the Board refused to order the resolution to a third reading by the following vote, namely: Yeas-Messrs. Easby, Kelly, Callan, Brent, and Hill-5.

Nays-Messrs. Douglass, Downer, Ennis, Wannall, Bryan, Mohun, Pepper, Hutchingson, Mulloy, Morgan, Miller, and Johnson—12.

MADAME KOSSUTH .- The New York Herald says that Madame Kossuth is more like a Magyar than her distinguished husband. She is rather smaller than he is, in proportion, but of stronger frame. She appears to be about the same age. She is a brunette, with good complexion, and fine, dark, lustrous eyes. Good sense is the prevailing idea suggested by her countenance. Modesty and quietness are also there. She is plain and unostentatious in her dress. She is reserved in her manner, and looks like a matron worthy to be the wife of Kossuth.

CLERICAL ERROR .- Azor B. Crane, esq., the Democratic candidate for county judge in Putnam county, New York, fails to obtain the cer-B. Grane, and which the county canvassers did will appeal from the decision of the board to the courts, where, we have no doubt, the decision of the canvassers will be reversed. We have seen "excepted" received in court as intended for accepted, on the face of a draft, though the difference was much wider than between Crane and Grane.

Persons who send us anonymous com munications sometimes request their return when not published: but in this we have to disappoint them. We neither read them nor preserve them, and when copies are not retained by the writers themselves, such productions are thus forever lost.

The Opeon has become an attractive place since Weisenfeld & Co. have opened their CHAPLAINS .- A writer in the Republic of this morning suggests to Congress to adopt the rule and congregation in the city of Washington, and holds no office under the Government, to open in prayer. "Set apart a fund," he says, "to be divided among those who officiate, at the end of the session. This would give to every denomination of Christians equal rights, prevent a system of electioneering among the clergy, and do justice especially to the humble, self-denying pastors, who confine themselves to the duty of taking care of their flocks." We heartily approve of this plan.

"Brown's Hotel," at Washington, is com pleted. It is said that the furniture and other arrangements about this establishment are n plus ultra.—Baltimore Argus.

We last evening attempted to explore this vast edifice, but gave out before we had seen the half of it. It is truly stupendous and magnificent in its construction and completion. We never before saw parlors or chambers furnished so grandly and so tastefully, nor the consummation of plans so admirably adapted to comfort and convenience. The Messrs. Brown calculated with confidence upon the most liberal patronage to sustain this great establishment, and will not be disappointed.

Kossuth will be in Philadelphia on Tues

Great Modical Discovery:

DR. J. S. ROSE'S NERVOUS CORDIAL,

FOR ALL NERVOUS CONDITIONS OF THE SYSsince which time I have found but little difficulty in curing most NERVOUS DISEASES, but very recently I have added an ingredient which acts like magic in rendering my NERVOUS CORDIAL far more certain in curing Nervous Tremor of the Muscles, Shaking of the Head, Palpitation, Flattelneca, Heart-burn, Tie Dolor, or Pain in the Face, with Twitchings of the Muscles or truly wonderful 'Modicine, from its peculiar happy effect in allaying the most violent Nervous affections, and completely eradicating them from the system, may justly be termed the grandest discovery in the science of Medicine.

It subdues and averts all those NERVOUS DISEASES, over which the most profound medical skill has hitherto had no control. It is a grand restorer in building up a weak constitution, already worn down by disease and debilitated by other Medicine; its invigorating properties act like a charm, and its beneficial effects are almost miraculous. The weak, the nervous, and those suffering with constant pains and uneasiness, are frequently cured by using a single bottle.

charge for exchange, &c. SELDEN, WITHERS & CO. GAUTIER'S HERB CANDY,

GAUTIER'S HERB CANDY,

For Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, etc.

THIS INVALUABLE CANDY has the extraordinary property of immediately relieving coughs, colds, hourseness, difficulty of breathing, bronchitis, asthma, and huskiness of the throat. It operates by dissolving the congealed phiegm, consequently cauling a free expectoration. Those who are troubled with that unpleasant tickling in the throat, which deprives them of rest night after night, by the incessant cough which it provokes, will, by using this Candy, find immediate relief.

The subscriber, in presenting this Candy to public notice, wishes to be expressly understood that he does not claim for it any miraculous curing properties, nor does he present it with a long string of certificates of recommendation, as he considers these altogether needless.

This Candy is composed of air simple ingredients, principally of herbs, which are known to be very efficacious in the cure of diseases resulting from colds, and some of which, being rather nauseous in their natural state, would deter many from resorting to them; but, when made into a candy, become palatable, without losing any of their valuable properties.

It has been prepared at the suggestion of one of our most eminent physicians, and has been used by many of this and my personal friends with signal success, and at whose carnest solicitation I have been induced to enter largely into its manufacture, assured by him and them that when generally known and tried it will supersede all the various cough candies and mixtures now in use.

As for myself, I am confident, from the ingredients of which it is composed, that, should it not effect an entire cure, it can do no injury even to the most delicate in health, and therefore have no hesitancy in introducing it to the citizens of Washington and vicinity.

Disections for use: Use one stick per day—in the morning before breakfast, in the middle of the day, and at night on going to bed. Price 12½ cents.
